There are few concerts I have attended over many years that have moved me as did this performance of Joby Talbot's Path of Miracles by the consummate a capella group Tenebrae, directed by Nigel Short. Antiphony and polyphony were in evidence in a stunning performance that not only showed the very highest quality of vocal technique, both individual and as an ensemble, but also such a wonderful sense of musicianship that made this performance very special indeed.

Specialist Adviser	Scottish Arts Council Officer

This report has been commissioned by the Scottish Arts Council to evaluate the artistic quality of the production named above. It has been prepared by either a specialist Advisor, or an officer of the Scottish Arts Council, as indicated at the end of the form. The report will be circulated to the organisation which produced the work and to the management of the venue, if the venue is core funded by the Scottish Arts Council.

1. Artistic Assessment

Please evaluate the artistic quality of the event, with particular reference to the strengths and weaknesses of the following:

Artform	Criteria	Rating	Comments and key reasons for rating
All	Vision and imagination of work - Quality of ideas, skills in execution; if you've seen the work of this artist(s)/ company before, please comment on the comparison.	5	One work, Joby Talbot's evocative Path of Miracles. A perfect choice for this venue and for the timing of the concert at 10.30 pm.
All (if relevant)	Curatorial/ programming vision/ selection Please indicate how the event originated eg from the exhibiting/ producing organisation, artist-led or commissioned.  If the event is part of a Festival, please say how it contributes to the overall programme.	5	If St Magnus Cathedral was chosen as a perfect venue for this work, it could not have been better chosen. The work is intimate but enveloping for the audience as the individual singers move around the building producing both a magical and sometimes mysterious effect.
All	Success of event against stated aims - in the programme or other printed material, including how well it communicated the artistic themes.  Education events – see <sup>1</sup> below for guidance	5	Absolutely brilliant in every way.
All	Performers/tutors - technical standard, performance skills and ability to communicate and engage.  Where performers are not trained, please reflect this in your comments.	5	The quality of performance and performers could not be understated here. Never have I heard such sustained excellence in clear and fluent melodic lines which also include cluster dissonances, so difficult for the voice, but so brilliantly and effectively delivered by Tenebrae.
Dance, Theatre	Choreography/Use of choreography - originality, use of space, number and use of dancers, length of piece, etc
Theatre	Script – particularly in relation to new work or second productions. Relevant to classics where the original has been substantially changed.
Theatre, Dance	Direction - Concerns issues of interpretation, casting and presentation.

<sup>1</sup> Education is a bridge between artform excellence and increased access and participation, and it is people centred. Providing opportunities for learning and progressing in an artform or using an artform to address other, non-artistic, outcomes are equally valid; in either case a high quality strategic approach is required in order to benefit the participants and the organisation. Delivery can be through workshops, post/pre-show discussions, outreach work, etc aimed at any age group.

Artform	Criteria	Rating	Comments and key reasons for rating
Dance, Theatre	Use of music – appropriateness and effect of sound or music (whole/part, live/recorded) to the production.
Dance, Theatre	Design – costume, set, lighting. Take into account how appropriate the design is in relation to the venue and, where appropriate, the touring schedule.
All	Quality of Presentation/Engagement Performing Arts - technical presentation of the production (eg lighting and sound cues, etc). Crafts/Visual Arts - Use of equipment, space and overall layout/hang Education events - relevance/ appropriateness of presentation and teaching methodology (one to one, group, child centred); details of participant group and activity, including genre.	5	The fluid nature of the performance and the choreography of the singers was magical.
All	Audience Performing Arts - appropriateness of the production for the audience/participants; estimate the size and reaction Crafts/Visual Arts – time spent, interest, activity, and visitors' books comments, number of visitors/ participants at the time of visit Education/learning – pre-event involvement, participants/ schoolteachers reaction, understanding, commitment, enthusiasm, number involved, etc		The entire audience was enraptured by this performance and so many stayed in the building long after the concert had ended, which is the highest compliment possible to performers.
All	Additional Interpretative activity – what activities were available to enhance the experience of the event eg workshops, artist's talks, discussion groups? Please indicate age-groups targeted.	4	Programme, web.
All	Outcomes of education activity – what learning/skills development took place? What did participants take away with them? Are education resources being provided for follow up work? Is it strategically linked to the curriculum (formal or informal)?	5	For any aspiring singer and for any musician of any genre and/or discipline, this was an education.
