ARTISTIC EVALUATION

It should be noted the views expressed in this evaluation are intended to represent, as far as possible, an objective aesthetic judgement. Specialist advisors and officers should avoid making judgements based on their own personal tastes and preferences.

Artist/Company:	Kenny Hunter
Venue:	Tramway
Title of Event:	'A Shout in the Street'
Type of Event: (e.g. performance, exhibition, informal showing, work-in-progress, workshop, screening, lecture etc)	Exhibition
Date of Visit:	Thursday 31 July 2008

(Please rate the event overall, taking into account your ratings for each section. Please state the key reasons for your overall ratings – i.e. the particular strengths and weaknesses. If the management of the event affects the overall enjoyment of the event, please comment, but the overall rating should be based on the artistic merit of the event.)
A well executed and installed show, bringing together some outstanding new and reworked sculptures, with a recent series of prints, in a way that communicates perfectly a number of themes central to the artist's current work.

Specialist Advisor	✓ Scottish Arts Council Officer Please circle the relevant title

This report has been commissioned by the Scottish Arts Council to evaluate the artistic quality of the production named above. It has been prepared by either a specialist Advisor, or an officer of the Scottish Arts Council, as indicated at the end of the form. The report will be circulated to the organisation which produced the work and to the management of the venue, if the venue is core funded by the Scottish Arts Council.

The report will form evidence for the Artistic Leadership and Public Engagement sections of the Quality Framework and be taken into account in assessing the work of the producing company in relation to applications for funding to the Scottish Arts Council. It may also be used by the Joint Board to report on the overall performance of its funded organisations.

Evaluators should enter their rating under each section, explaining briefly their reason for the rating with reference to their comments under each section. Ratings should be given in accordance with the following:

- 1 - Very Poor – standard falls well below what is acceptable.
- 2 - Poor – not attaining acceptable standards of conception or presentation.
- 3 - Competent – routine rather than especially interesting.
- 4 - Good – well conceived and executed
- 5 - Excellent – conceived and executed to a high standard.

1. Artistic Assessment

Please evaluate the artistic quality of the event, with particular reference to the strengths and weaknesses of the following:

Artform	Criteria	Rating	Comments and key reasons for rating
All	Vision and imagination of work - Quality of ideas, skills in execution; if you've seen the work of this artist(s)/ company before, please comment on the comparison.	4/5	The exhibition demonstrates the ongoing quality of the artist's work and highlights how his practice is continually developing in new and interesting directions. The project responded well to Tramway 5.
All (if relevant)	Curatorial/ programming vision/ selection Please indicate how the event originated eg from the exhibiting/ producing organisation, artist-led or commissioned. If the event is part of a Festival, please say how it contributes to the overall programme.	4	The exhibition was originated by Tramway and includes both new and 'reworked' sculptures (an excellent and welcome opportunity to see some works relating to those shown at Yorkshire Sculpture Park in 2006) and a series of prints developed following a 2005 residency in New York (and shown at Glasgow Art Fair earlier this year). Given that Hunter has not shown in Scotland (solo) for four years, the exhibition is timely.
All	Success of event against stated aims - in the programme or other printed material, including how well it communicated the artistic themes. Education events – see ¹ below for guidance	4	The exhibition fulfilled its aims of communicating the artist's interest in a reconsideration of 'the mechanics of contemporary living' and revealing further his innovative approach to sculpture itself.
All	Performers/tutors - technical standard, performance skills and ability to communicate and engage. Where performers are not trained, please reflect this in your comments.	n/a
Dance, Theatre	Choreography/Use of choreography - originality, use of space, number and use of dancers, length of piece, etc	n/a
Theatre	Script – particularly in relation to new work or second productions. Relevant to classics where the original has been substantially changed.	n/a
Theatre, Dance	Direction - Concerns issues of interpretation, casting and presentation.	n/a

¹ Education is a bridge between artform excellence and increased access and participation, and it is people centred. Providing opportunities for learning and progressing in an artform or using an artform to address other, non-artistic, outcomes are equally valid; in either case a high quality strategic approach is required in order to benefit the participants and the organisation. Delivery can be through workshops, post/pre-show discussions, outreach work, etc aimed at any age group.

Artform	Criteria	Rating	Comments and key reasons for rating
Dance, Theatre	Use of music – appropriateness and effect of sound or music (whole/part, live/recorded) to the production.	n/a
Dance, Theatre	Design – costume, set, lighting. Take into account how appropriate the design is in relation to the venue and, where appropriate, the touring schedule.	n/a
All	Quality of Presentation/Engagement Performing Arts - technical presentation of the production (eg lighting and sound cues, etc). Crafts/Visual Arts - Use of equipment, space and overall layout/hang Education events - relevance/appropriateness of presentation and teaching methodology (one to one, group, child centred); details of participant group and activity, including genre.	5	The exhibition worked particularly well in Tramway 5 (a fantastic addition to Tramway): the ideas explored in the work concerning issues of 'consumerism, waste and displacement from nature' were highlighted in part through the proximity of the space to the street. The installation worked well.
All	Audience Performing Arts - appropriateness of the production for the audience/participants; estimate the size and reaction Crafts/Visual Arts – time spent, interest, activity, and visitors' books comments, number of visitors/ participants at the time of visit Education/learning – pre-event involvement, participants/ schoolteachers reaction, understanding, commitment, enthusiasm, number involved, etc		I was in the exhibition space for approximately 20 minutes but was the only visitor during that time. I did not see a comments book.
All	Additional Interpretative activity – what activities were available to enhance the experience of the event eg workshops, artist's talks, discussion groups? Please indicate age-groups targeted.	3	The exhibition was accompanied by a free leaflet/gallery plan. This did not refer to an events programme, but a free artist's talk did take place on 19 July.
All	Outcomes of education activity – what learning/skills development took place? What did participants take away with them? Are education resources being provided for follow up work? Is it strategically linked to the curriculum (formal or informal)?	n/a

2. Management of Event

Please evaluate the way the event was presented/organised by the organisation and the venue, with reference to the checklist below, including additional comments/observations. Please try to view the venue and the services, and interpretative material as though you had never visited it before eg if you did not know the venue's location, how easy would it be to find your way there, and to find your way around once you had arrived?

Criteria	Comment
Suitability of the venue for the event	Perfect – particularly good use of Tramway 5
Information/ interpretive material at venue - programmes, displays etc.	Good – exhibition leaflet and gallery plan was clear and concise
Publicity/ pre-publicity –leaflets, posters, websites, etc. What is produced, is it easy to understand and where can you get the information? Please be alert to the publicity available prior to your visit to the event and comment on the company/organisation's website.	Posters and preview cards were produced. The website is informative and easy to use.
Ease of booking and payment	n/a
Location of venue – eg is it easy to find? Is it on a main transport route?	Very easy to find! Although trains were off the day I visited, Tramway is ideally located right next to Pollokshields East and major bus routes to the southside.
External signage and signposting	Good and continually improving.
Internal directional signage	Good.
Access and provision for disabled people – what can you see?	Level access to Tramway 5 and lift access to upper floor. Good overall provision for disabled people.
Timing of the event – was the length appropriate? Did the start and finish time seem to be appropriate for the audience?	Usual run of six weeks and general opening hours of 10-5.
Customer service - quality and efficiency of staff (e.g. box office, front of house, bar and/or catering)	One gallery guide – helpful and approachable.
Acknowledgement of Scottish Arts Council Funding ²	SAC logo appeared on all related print and is shown clearly on Tramway website.

² In press releases, at launches, on all published materials (including leaflets, brochures, programmes, posters, company's website, notices display, exhibition materials, websites and advertising, recordings, publications, video, broadcasts, computer programmes etc.) Where the event is publicised in the programme brochure of another organisation (eg venue, gallery, etc) then SAC acknowledgement should appear against the particular programme entry for this event.

3. Organisation's Comments (optional)

This is the organisation's opportunity to respond to points raised within this assessment. Please do not feel obliged to fill this section in. In the spirit of the Quality Framework, we would ask that any comments are self-evaluating, providing an insight as to why, if there is, a major disagreement of response between the organisation and the evaluation, in a constructive way.

This will not alter the rating given by the assessment, but will allow the organisation the opportunity to give their opinion/feedback. The Scottish Arts Council reserves the right to edit comments if they are deemed to be libellous or defamatory.

As the Scottish Arts Council implements the Quality Framework internally, we intend to publish artistic evaluations on organisations that we support regularly on our website. The final artistic evaluation, including the organisation's response will be published on a quarterly basis on our website.

Please keep your response to max 500 words. If we do not hear from you in 15 days, we will assume that you do not want to respond.
